INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Directors
The Exodus Road
Colorado Springs, Colorado

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of The Exodus Road, which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2013 and the related statement of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Board of Directors
The Exodus Road

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Exodus Road as of December 31, 2013, and the changes in its net assets and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2013

1. NATURE OF ORGANIZATION:

The Exodus Road (Exodus) exists in order to empower the deliverance of sex slaves. They operate primarily in Southeast Asia, India, and the United States of America to fuel already existing teams working with local police. By partnering with them to provide covert gear, operational funding, training and networking support, they have been able to free hundreds of victims from slavery.

Exodus is a not-for-profit organization incorporated in the State of Colorado, is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) and is not a private foundation under Section 509(a) of the Code.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Exodus maintains its accounts and prepares its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosures of any contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from the estimates. The significant accounting policies followed are described below to enhance the usefulness of the financial statements to the reader.

CASH

Cash consists of a checking account and petty cash. The account, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. Exodus has not experienced any losses on the account and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk.

NET ASSETS

The financial statements report amounts by class of net assets as follows:

Unrestricted net assets are those currently available to support Exodus' operations and those resources invested in property and equipment.

Temporarily restricted net assets are comprised of donor-restricted contributions for the support of Exodus' projects.

SUPPORT, REVENUE, AND EXPENSES

Contributions are recorded when made, which may be when cash and other assets are received or unconditionally promised. Gifts of cash and other assets are reported as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated amounts. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is satisfied, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions. All contributions are considered available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. An administrative fee of 20% is assessed on restricted contributions to fund the operations of Exodus.

Expenses are recorded when incurred in accordance with the accrual basis of accounting.

CONTRIBUTED SERVICES

Contributed services are recognized as support and revenue at their estimated fair value only when the services received create or enhance non-financial assets or require specialized skills by the individual providing the service and the service would typically need to be purchased if not donated. During the year ended December 31, 2013, Exodus received donated services from its field director in Thailand, its marketing and business consultant, and from multiple field investigators. These skilled services have been recorded at a combined estimated fair value of $410,000 for the year ended December 31, 2013.

ALLOCATION OF EXPENSES

The costs of providing program services and supporting activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. Accordingly, certain costs, have been allocated among the program services and supporting activities benefited.

UNCERTAIN TAX POSITIONS

The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the statement of activities. As of December 31, 2013, the organization had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

3. OPERATING LEASE:

Exodus has a non-cancellable operating lease for office space for its operations in Colorado Springs, expiring in July 2016. Lease expense for the year ended December 31, 2013 was $12,175. Future minimum payments are as follows:

Year Ending December 31,
2014	$ 10,000
2015	24,000
2016	14,000
	$ 48,000

4. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS:

Subsequent events have been evaluated through the report date, which represents the date the financial statements were available to be issued. Subsequent events after that date have not been evaluated.
